Dear Carsten,

Regarding the March order:

The shipper informed us that the cargo readiness will only be on March 19th. Currently, all Maersk vessels departing in March are already closed, and the next available vessel has ETD April 1st. Please find the details of this rate below:

MAERSK

Rio Grande x Helsinki - via Bremerhaven - TT 40 days - Ocean Freight: USD 2,142.00 / 40'HC - ETD April 1st, 8th, and 15th

If you would still like this order to ship in March, we have a backup booking with Hapag-Lloyd on a vessel with ETD March 22nd, with a slightly higher ocean freight. Please find the details of this rate below.

HAPAG

Rio Grande x Helsinki - Via Hamburg - TT 55 days - Ocean Freight: USD 2,254.00 /40HC - Validity March 31st

Please let me know which option you would like to proceed with.

I am also sharing my phone/WhatsApp contact, please feel free to reach out anytime (+55 51 99597-5017)

Dear Carsten and Otto,
I hope you are all doing well!

To keep you informed, I contacted the shipper yesterday at the end of the day, and he confirmed that we can proceed with the Maersk vessel with ETD April 1st for the shipment of the first order of 02x40HC.

The freight rate remains the same (USD 2,142.00/40HC), and at the moment the vessel is still open for bookings.

Can we proceed this way?

Dear Carsten,
How are you?

I would like to check with you whether we can reserve the booking on the first available vessel with Maersk, which has an ETD of April 1st, in order to secure space for the first shipment to be dispatched. Please note that the freight terms remain the same as mentioned in my last email.

MAERSK

Rio Grande x Helsinki - via Bremerhaven - TT 40 days - Ocean Freight: USD 2,142.00 / 40'HC - ETD April 1st, 8th, and 15th
+ origin and destination charges

However, we have also identified an alternative option for this shipment with Hapag. Please note that this carrier still has space available for March. We made a trial booking for 2x40HC on the vessel with an ETD of March 22nd, and it has already been confirmed. I am sharing the terms of this offer below for your review.

HAPAG

Rio Grande x Helsinki - Via Hamburg - TT 55 days - Ocean Freight: USD 2,254.00 /40HC - Validity March 31st
+ origin and destination charges

I look forward to your comments on how we should proceed, thank you!

Dear Carsten,
I hope you're well!

Please note that we had been monitoring Maersk vessels with departures in March on a daily basis. However, due to the high demand this route has been experiencing, all vessels have been closed for new bookings due to lack of space (ETD Mar 11th, Mar 18th, and Mar 25th).

Considering the shipper's readiness for the first shipment, indicated for March 19, may we secure space on the next available vessel with ETD April 1st?

Please note that there has been a slight increase in the freight rate, as outlined below:

MAERSK

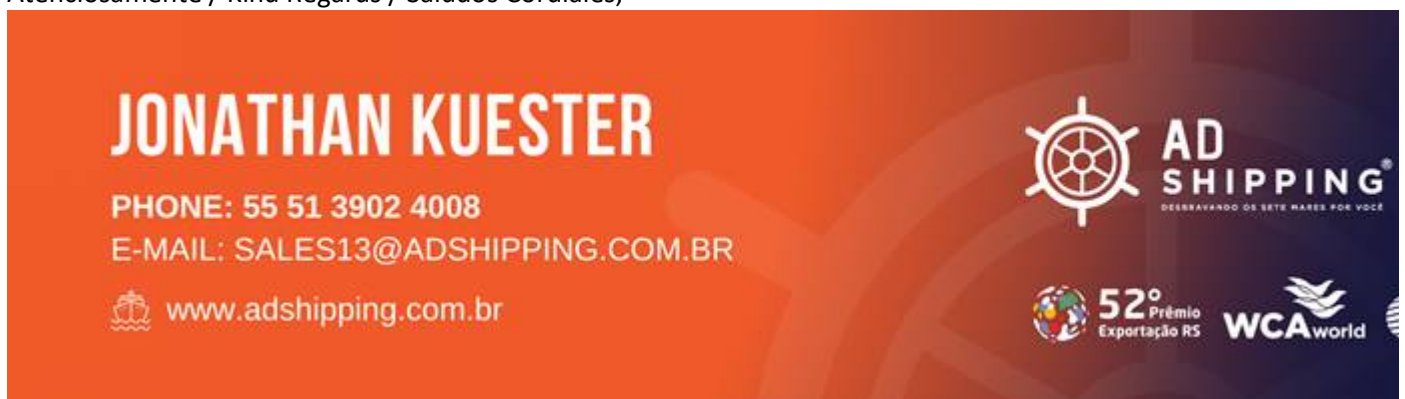

Rio Grande x Helsinki - via Bremerhaven - TT 40 days - Ocean Freight: USD 2,142.00 / 40'HC - ETD April 1st, 8th, and 15th

+ origin and destination charges

Regarding the second order shipment, we are still awaiting the shipper to confirm the cargo readiness date, and we will inform you as soon as possible.

We look forward to your instructions.

Hello Carsten,

Regarding the SPOT rates, I cannot guarantee a confirmation, as the prices may vary daily, although they can sometimes remain stable for several days. I believe there is a chance the rate will stay the same until the beginning of next week, but as mentioned, I cannot assure that.

I will try to negotiate a reduction in the BUE rates and will keep you updated.

Hello Luiza,

many thanks for the quotes – how high would be the possibility to get the spot rate confirmed from Santos to Leixoes at USD 987/40' FCL if we can confirm order early next week ?

And it seems as if the freight rate from Buenos Aires increased very much – is there anything better you can do – similar to the lowest rate ex Brasil ?

Or should we better not calculate with the spot rates and take the other rates with validity date ?

Kind regards,
Carsten Beckmann
