Good morning, dear Nadine! How are you?

Please note that space on Maersk vessels is filling up quickly. Today we received the shipper's approval to proceed with the booking; however, the October sailings are already closed, with space now available on the first November departure. May we proceed with the booking on this vessel?

MAERSK LINS / 544N - ETD Nov 5th and ETA Dec 8th

I look forward to your prompt reply so that we can secure the space as soon as possible.

Atenciosamente / Kind Regards / Saludos Cordiales

Good afternoon, dear Nadine! How are you?

Please note that the shipper has informed us that the cargo readiness for this new lot is in week 41.

Below, I am sharing with you the freight rates for your review:

- Maersk: availability of space only from week 43. This carrier has re-established its stock of food-grade containers in Rio Grande; at this moment, we are not facing release issues. However, they are still working to clear the backlog of cargo stuck in RIG.

- Hapag: vessels are currently under space review. As for equipment availability, they have a low stock of 40' HC containers. Releases occur very close to the draft deadline, and some rollings may happen due to equipment shortages.
- MSC: we are still waiting for the rate.

Good afternoon, dear Nadine!

This is good news; we appreciate the new opportunity!

Please note that we are in contact with the shipper to check the readiness of the cargo and with the carriers to verify rates and space availability. I will revert shortly with updates!
